Gaia Wallpaper Desktop makes it very easy to get organized, share photos, and manage your desktop wallpaper collection. How to use Gaia Wallpaper Desktop: Start Gaia Wallpaper Desktop from your desktop folder by clicking the icon (a little blue book) or right-click the desktop and select "Gaia Wallpaper Desktop". Gaia Wallpaper Desktop starts with a blank desktop with a collection of default photos. You can click the menu button in the corner to add your own images from your Pictures folder. You can modify any of the photo properties by using the tabs on the top. Click the "Effects" tab to customize your screen saver. Click the "Calendar" tab to quickly setup a custom screensaver timetable. The program will change the size, rotation, and place of your image as the day or time passes. You can create a screensaver of your own by right-clicking your desktop and selecting "Custom Screensaver". Gaia Wallpaper Desktop is a sophisticated and approachable application designed to offer an easy way of creating and managing multiple desktop wallpaper collections. It features screensaver, resize function, and a built-in calendar. The program is wrapped in a simple and intuitive layout divided into three tabs, each provides a different feature, and a basic toolbar. You can resize the panel by dragging the corners to the desired dimension. Customize the look of your desktop When the app starts, no images are displayed, but you can modify that by accessing the wallpaper section and add the preferred photos or folder. Specific themes can be easily created from the menu by giving them a name to reflect the album. It's possible to insert various effects to the files, such as blur, chessboard, interlace, mirror, negative, pixelization, and saturate, as well as a layout style (cycle, collage), area, and fill color for empty spaces. Once a directory or pictures are loaded, you can see them in the desktop panel along with the effects. The next button gives the ability to view the items in ascending, descending or random order, option that may be changed anytime. Set and personalize the screensaver In addition, you can manage the screensaver by choosing a default theme, like bubbles, mystify, ribbons, or blank. The 3D text properties are customizable, by simply selecting what to show, a phrase or the time. The font type, style and rotation (e.g. spin, see-saw, wobble) can be picked, along with the resolution, size, and speed. Gaia Wallpaper Desktop lets you set the change duration between each image or adjust it to a specific time of the day. The calendar function displays a timetable, which can be moved the left, right, center or up, and sized to the desired length. Keep in mind that, the tool replaces the Windows
